Special Announcements

As a ReWa residential customer, you are automatically enrolled in their Six-Month Savings Program. This savings period has ended and is not reflected on your November bill. ReWa takes the average number of gallons used during the winter months to establish your average use. To

Las facturaciones mostrarán el cargo pendiente (como se muestra en <http://www.greenvillewater.com/customer-service/rate-information/#SERVICE-CHARGES>) que debe agregarse en caso de que no se realice el pago en la fecha de vencimiento.

If current charges are not paid in full by close of business on the printed due date, a delinquent fee of $7.50, or 5% of the bill, whichever is greater, will be added.

To avoid disconnection and additional non-payment fee of $40, pay your past due charges of $31.55 by close of business on November 13, 2017.
